IV therapy fits inside the full program

Offer services for energy, hydration, immunity and recovery with turn-key protocols and patient management through the same partnership.

The services arrive with the infrastructure behind them

Catalog and fulfillment

Products, prescriptions and clinic-or-patient shipping.

Marketing and app

Branded materials plus an iOS and Android patient app.

CRM and merchant processing

Lead follow-up, automations, and integrated card and ACH processing.

Onboarding and support

Account setup, regulatory guidance and ongoing help.

You can build the business without personally practicing medicine.

Licensed professionals still deliver the clinical care

888 supplies the program infrastructure: platform, product access, workflows, fulfillment, marketing tools and support.

Appropriately licensed clinicians: consult, prescribe, order, supervise and administer services as required.

Availability and operating requirements vary by state and service. Partner structure must follow applicable law, professional ownership rules and scope-of-practice requirements. This presentation is not legal advice.

Go from application to first order in four steps

- 1 Apply to become a partner
- 2 Configure your clinic account
- 3 Add staff and patients
- 4 Order and track shipments

One account. One operating system.

Manage products, patients, orders, fulfillment and support from the partner portal.

Bring a complete wellness program to your business
